

Bothell Branch Campus Access at 195th/I-405

The Bothell Branch Campus Access project included several improvements that enhance transit access to the University of Washington Bothell and Cascadia Community College. Project improvements include transit signal priority at the campus entrance, modification and improvements to the existing bus loop, a new traffic signal and an additional bus shelter. The improvements increased bus travel time savings and efficiency.

Mode

Bus

Highlights

Construction completed: Fall 2007

Location: University of Washington Bothell and Cascadia Community College Campus at 195th and I-405 in Bothell

Budget: $3.8 million

Planning partners: Sound Transit, City of Bothell, Snohomish County, King County Metro, Community Transit, University of Washington Bothell, Cascadia Community College

Consultants & contractors

Preliminary and final design: INCA Engineers

Construction management: KBA, Inc.

Construction: Kemper Construction

